

FLOWER FESTIVAL.

SANTA ANA'S SUPERB FLORAL FAIR IN FULL BLAST.

A Dream of Fragrance and Beauty—A Description of the Numerous Booths as a "Times" Reporter Saw Them Yesterday.

After watching the preparations being made by the army of fair ladies during the day, when the opening hour of the Santa Ana Flower Festival came on Tuesday evening, the transformation was really wonderful. An hour or two had brought order out of chaos, and the festival opened in a blaze of glory. On every hand could be heard expressions such as this: "Is it not beautiful? Los Angeles had nothing to equal this!" At 8 o'clock p.m. the hall was crowded with people representing all walks of life, showing the general interest taken in the festival. The excellence of the management was manifested by the uninterrupted manner in which the programme of the evening was carried out. Every one seemed to enjoy the festival and to be well pleased with the success of the opening night. Following is a description of the various booths as they appeared at the opening:

Over the entrance, attached to the wall, is the emblem of the Good Templars, worked in flowers of various colors. It consists of the cross, the anchor and the heart, arranged in the usual way, with the letters "H. C. (Faith, Hope and Charity) across the heart. Above the whole stretches a scroll of evergreens, on which appear the symbolic letters, L. O. G. T.

THE MEXICAN BOOTH is about six feet square, with canopy top. The posts and cornice are ornamented with wreaths of ivy, dotted with red roses.

THE GARDEN GROVE BOOTH, occupying the space on the right of the entrance, presents a very handsome appearance. The ladies, who have been hard at work at this booth, have proved that "Garden Grove"—the legend worked in letters of pampas plumes and red roses, which covers the cornice of evergreen, surmounted by fan palms, at the top of their booth, is by no means a misnomer, but that their fertile section is, indeed, a garden grove. The front of the railing of this booth is covered with red gauze, ornamented with wreaths of green vines, dotted with flowers of various kinds. The top of the railing is covered with banks of roses, among which are several very pretty pieces, such as a star, a harp, a heart, and some elegant bouquets. The space between the railing and the cornice, supporting the latter, is taken up at intervals by pillars of flowers of various colors, which give a bright aspect to the structure. Above the main entrance to the booth is suspended a large bell of white roses, with a rim of red roses. The background is covered with palms and other plants. The ladies in charge of this booth have an idea to business, for they have not forgotten to exhibit some of their fine products in the way of fine lemons, oranges and new potatoes, very large in size. The central space in the Garden Grove booth, from the floor to the top of the railing, is taken up by a panel of evergreen, in which is a representation of the Golden State, with the principal cities designated thereon. Needless to add that Garden Grove figures on this golden atlas as the "metropolis." This booth, which is greatly admired by all, is in charge of Mrs. Albert Chaffee.

THE ORANGE BOOTH, taking up the northeast corner of the hall, presents to the view three large open panels, which are formed by pillars of evergreens and flowers, rising above the enclosure and supporting the cornice of evergreens, surmounted by large fan palms. The canopy roof is made up of red gauze and white evergreen, and the peak of the roof is capped with a large cluster of the luscious-looking fruit which gives its name to this booth. The background, with a mirror in the center, and a large pillar supporting the peak of the roof, are evergreens dotted with flowers of various kinds and oranges. The front of the railing of the orange booth is decorated with pepper boughs, marguerites and English ivy, and the top forms an incline and shows the following pieces: A Maltese cross in carnations, a panel of light roses, a violin of pansies, a halo of marguerites, a star in green background, made of rose geranium leaves, and a large panel of white roses, with the word "Orange" worked in carnations. Several bouquets of choice flowers, among which are noticed a bouquet of white lilies, finish the ornamentation of this booth, which is in charge of Mrs. W. H. Clayton, assisted by Miss Flora Frazier.

THE BUTTERFLY BOUQUET BOOTH, presided over by Miss Ida Barnes, stands against the northern wall, and has a circular front. The enclosure is covered with pepper-boughs, which reach to the counter, on which the bouquets are temptingly shown to the timid youths who covet them. The cornice of evergreens is arranged peak-shaped, with a very handsome large bell of white roses, lined with evergreens, with a clapper of roses. The background of this booth is tastefully ornamented with a shelf, on which stands a pier-glass, on either side of which are large vases filled with cactus blossoms. The upper part of the background is draped with curtains. Miss Barnes' assistants are Miss McLeod, Miss Crookshanks, and Mrs. Young.

THE SANTA ANA BOOTH, the largest and most elaborate of this grand display of the beauties of this valley, occupies a space against the northern wall of the hall, some thirty or forty feet in width, by nearly twenty in depth. The main outline of this palace of flowers is a semi-circle, formed by pillars rising above the railing and supporting the canopy-shaped roof. These pillars, which are composed of evergreens, roses and other flowers, make several distinct arches, and are open, giving a fine view of the gorgeous display within. The front of the railing is covered with muslin, and ornamented with wreaths of evergreen and flowers, making a background for the legend "Santa Ana, 1887," which stretches across the lower front of the enclosure. The top of the railing is on an incline, and is ornamented with banks of choice roses and carnations, about four feet deep. These banks are dotted with choice flowers in bottles. The roof of this booth is canopy-topped, the ground-work being two very large United States flags, the peak rising to the ceiling, and palms of various descriptions covering its outer edges. Over the center arch, on a pedestal of evergreen, stands a white statue, supporting on its head a huge basket of choice flowers, and above this is suspended a beautiful, large white bird. Extending on each side, right and left, the open-arched panels are occupied by large vases, filled with flowers, around which stand out prominently the following pieces, wrought in exquisite flowers: An anchor, a fan, a Maltese cross, a harp and the symbol of the W. C. T. U. The background consists of heavy damask curtains, in front of which are hanging lace curtains, giving the interior a light appearance, which is very pleasing to the eye. The center of the background is covered by a huge pyramid of flowers, ten feet high. Suspended from the center of the booth is a large globe of flowers, with "America" prominently outlined on the front of its circumference. California stands out conspicuously in bright flowers, and Southern California and Santa Ana in particular are in golden colors. The lightest tower, which occupies the floor space of the central arch of the Santa Ana booth, is really artistic. It rests on a bank of evergreens, and is surrounded by blue and white flowers, arranged in imitation of water. The tower is of marigolds, with glass windows, and is surmounted by a canopy. In the shape of a semi-circle, out of which shoots a strong bullseye light. Among the other ornamentations of this booth is a full-size chair, all made of flowers, richly upholstered with the choicest of flowers. Mrs. Dr. Bailey, who has charge of the Santa Ana booth, and her assistants, are warmly commended for the taste they have displayed in exhibiting the beautiful home products of their town. Between the Santa Ana and Tustin booths, against the northern wall of the hall, stands the booth of "REBECCA AT THE WELL."

The well, which is a large jar, holding as much as a large cask, is surmounted by a bower of evergreens, and Miss L. E. Crookshanks dispenses lemonade from this inexhaustible font. The boys seem to like lemonade, but there is a lurking suspicion that a sly word from the fair vendor attracts a good many to call on "Rebecca at the well."

THE TUSTIN BOOTH, which occupies the northwest corner of the hall, has a semi-circular front, arranged with a large central open panel, and two smaller side panels. The enclosure, draped with white muslin to a height of about two feet, forms the front support of a semi-circular bank of flowers, such as marigolds, pansies, roses, passion flowers, etc. On this beautiful bank of flowers, which takes up the whole front of this elegant booth, are placed the following pieces: Harp and stand, star and urn, horseshoe and cross, and a basket, interspersed with a number of pretty bouquets and a panel of roses reaching to the floor. The pillars that support the cornice of evergreens, on which appear the name "Tustin," worked in marigolds, with a halo of gold, and another of carnations on either side, are wrapped with green and ornamented with white Lamarque roses and Grevillea robusta, the only specimen of this flower in the hall. The front of the booth is of fan palms. The background is tastefully hung with lace curtains, and the corner is a solid isosceles bank of white roses nine feet in height, surmounted by a crown of red flowers, over which, from the front, is seen the semi-circular motto of the W. C. T. U.: "God, Home and Native Land," of marigolds on a green foundation. On the left side wall hangs a blue silk banner with letters of white daisies "W. C. T. U." The lady in charge of this booth is Mrs. M. J. Bundy, of Tustin, with Mrs. F. B. Van Alstine, Mrs. L. Utt and others as assistants. On the outside of the Tustin booth, and making part of the exhibit, is a representation of the valley, stands a flower-piece, which has called forth a good deal of well deserved admiration. It represents a tank-house, tank and windmill complete—the mill revolving. This piece is in the hands of a simlax, carnations, marigolds and evergreens, and is the handiwork of Mrs. Van Alstine.

THE ART GALLERY BOOTH, which takes up more than half of the western wall of the hall, is surrounded by a railing, pillars and cornice of pepper boughs, with a few fan palms projecting above the cornice, which form a peak above the entrance, which itself is ornamented with three palettes of rare flowers, the principal one, under the peak, being made of fuchsias. The floor is covered with Turkish rugs, and handsome chairs, rockers and stools are tastefully arranged within the enclosure. At either end of the studio stand two bronze busts on handsomely draped pedestals. The background and ends of the studio are entirely covered with paintings, portraits, designs, medallions, and works of art too numerous to mention. The draperies over and among the frames are of silk and satin. The presiding genius of this booth is Mrs. George Edgar, a fancy painting of whom, in a frame of pink and red roses, graces an easel in the studio. Mrs. Edgar is assisted by Mrs. E. E. Edwards, Miss Jennie Humphreys, Mrs. Swartzel and Mrs. E. M. Pierce. The names of some of the principal contributors to the art gallery are Mrs. E. M. Pierce, Mr. J. Russell Griffith, Mrs. George Edgar, Mrs. E. E. Edwards, Miss L. M. Edwards, Mrs. Fred Burgess, Mr. Charles Tedford, Miss Ingalls and Miss Jeannette Wilcox.

A number of oil-paintings, souvenirs, etc., were presented to the festival by Mrs. E. E. Edwards, Mrs. Swartzel and Miss Pierce. Mr. Griffith and Miss Babcock. These will be sold, and the proceeds go to swell the treasury of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

THE CALIFORNIA CURIO BOOTH, taking up the southwest corner of the hall, is tastefully and handsomely arranged for the purpose for which it was erected. Pillars of evergreen and flowers, supporting an evergreen cornice surmounted by several varieties of palms, form four large panels of sufficient size to enable lookers-on to get a good view of the endless variety of curios on exhibition. The background of this booth is gracefully draped with curtains, and the walls show several flower-pieces, such as a handsome shield, an anchor, etc. The front of the lower enclosure is decorated with evergreens, and the top of the railing forms a counter, on which are several show-cases filled with a large variety of curiosities. Among the curios in these show-cases, is an owl made of sea mosses from the Santa Ana beach, with eyes and features of a woodcock, and other shells, and the bird is perched in a crescent of the same material. The center of the background is occupied by a California lion, mounted in lifelike position. The corner of the booth is decorated with a bear, the legend: "California Curio," worked in pampas plumes, and just below it is suspended a beautiful crescent of rare roses. This booth is in charge of Mrs. Robert McFadden, assisted by Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Roth.

Adjoining the G. A. R. booth is a square stand, ornamented with ivy on the sides, and blue and white flowers, in imitation of sea water, on top. A beautiful white steamship, made of marigolds, geraniums and smilax, with the name "Newport" at its masthead, occupies a position near a bank of flowers, slightly elevated, to represent a pier. This attractive piece is the work of Mrs. Kate Humphreys, of Santa Ana.

THE G. A. R. BOOTH, in the southeast corner of the hall, is in the shape of a wall tent. The walls are made of red, white and blue bunting, and the sides and roof of flags and bunting. Evergreen, callas and fan palms add to the ornamentation of this popular booth. There are three great American eagles, each suspended over the entrance, with a hare in its talons, and the other two perched on pedestals, on the outer edge of the roof. Under the largest eagle, over the entrance, hangs a handsome banner, with the words "G. A. R.," worked in appropriate colors. On the left of the entrance is suspended the Relief Corps badge, also of flowers, and on the right the badge of the Sons of Veterans. The flag which forms the drapery of the entrance and ornamentation with tissue-paper flowers, such as snowballs, water-lilies, hydrangeas, roses of all colors, etc. Within this booth the ladies of the Relief Corps have exhibited a large variety of war relics, which are kept in show-cases. Besides the many emblems which reveal to all the fact that this is the G. A. R. booth, the front bears the following large and beautiful letters, indicative of the three societies whose headquarters are here located: "G. A. R., W. R. C. and S. V." This booth is in charge of Mrs. M. J. Layman, who has always been an untiring worker in every cause in which she has enlisted.

THE JAPANESE BOOTH, which is also the candy booth, graces the center of the hall, and presents a very graceful appearance. The circular railing, which stands on short posts, covered alternately with blue and red percale, the inside of which is draped with the same material, in blue, makes a convenient counter for the display of the many toys and trinkets which are being sold in this booth. In the center of this booth rises a pillar of roses on which rests the pole of a huge Japanese umbrella, in gay colors, surrounded by suspended Chinese lanterns. Facing the entrance, and over the candy counter, is the following sign worked in letters of flowers: "Sweets for the Sweet."

Mrs. C. E. French presides over the candy part of this booth, and seems to be improving her opportunities. After supervising, along with Mrs. Robert McFadden, the arrangements of the whole festival, she has finally settled down to business as dispenser of "sweets for the sweet."

The Japanese booth proper is presided over by Miss Alice Collins, in appropriate costume, who seems at home with her responsibilities.

When the throng had feasted on the lovely sight the exercises of the evening began, and the following programme was presented:

PROGRAMME. Fairy March and Overture—By the children. Quartette, "A Sailor's Life Give Me"—Miss Nellie Barrett, Miss Alice Collins, Mr. J. Alberger, and Mr. Morris Varney. Piano Solo—Miss Jennie Humphreys. Temperance Song—By the Band of Hope. Song, "Lullaby"—Mr. Peter Kirkwood. Piano Duet—Prof. Bach and Miss Humphreys. Vocal Solo, "Swiss Echo Song"—Miss Barrett. Song, guitar accompaniment, "Will the Roses Bloom Again?"—Mr. Linn Shaw. Local Duet, in costume, "What Are the Wild Waves Saying?"—Miss Barrett and Mr. Alberger.

The receipts for the first day were very satisfactory indeed, but the management prefers to wait until the close of the festival before making the figures known, and then the total, they say, will astonish the natives. So mote it be. The festival will continue through this week, and will close on Saturday evening next.

The officers of the W. C. T. U. of Santa Ana, under whose auspices the festival is held, are: Mrs. B. Z. G. Cleve, president; Mrs. S. B. Booth, secretary; Mrs. M. H. Webster, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Hill, treasurer; with one vice-president from each church organization in Santa Ana.

The Flower Festival is under the superintendence of Mrs. C. E. French and Mrs. Robert McFadden.

Marriage Licenses. Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to A. J. Kraemer and Abba Horliger, and to Frank Lewis and Nora King.

Cement. The Los Angeles Storage Commission and Lumber Company, San Pedro street, near Third, are doing the largest business in cement of any concern in the southern part of the State. Being agents of Davis & Cowell, the heaviest importers of cement in the State, and having superior warehouse facilities, they can sell cement as low or lower than any other dealers, and will not be undersold.

Roth & Quarre, of the Diamond House, have just received a fine assortment of opera-glasses direct from the celebrated firm of Laumier, Paris, and will sell same at prices lower than ever offered.

A visit to the Diamond House will be of interest to you, if only to see the magnificent display of bronzes just received.

THE WICKS DUMMY.

A NEW MOTOR LINE APPROACHING COMPLETION.

A Well-Built and Expensive Road, Which Will be Profitable—The Fine Section It Opens to Settlement—To Be in Operation by July 1st.

In the issue of Wednesday THE TIMES gave information concerning the opening of the McLaughlin dummy railroad, on the Second street extension, the particulars regarding it, and some reference to the rapid development of that portion of the city. There is also another section in close proximity to that described, which has been and is undergoing a similar transformation. Reference is made to the area lying north of Temple and west of the Sisters' Hospital. In company with Mr. Sanders, a TIMES reporter was conveyed in a carriage over a very beautiful locality, and had pointed out the various characteristics of the lay of the land and the changes that are taking place.

The steam dummy line, now being constructed by M. L. Wicks and others, has its starting point on the corner of Bellevue and Beaudry avenues and runs off in a northwesterly direction through the hills, following a little valley that winds between the gentle elevations on either side. There are some pretty deep cuts and fills in places along the line, but this is done to give a good grade and solid foundation for the ties and rails. The road passes along just north of reservoir No. 4, and past some very nice orchards and vineyards in this locality until it reaches the city limits, near the north-west corner. Here it forks, the main line keeping off to the north and west around the base of the hills and through the valley out to the Los Felis ostrich farm near the river. Right at the place where the roads diverge lies the Ivanhoe tract, which has been so extensively advertised. It consists of 700 acres, over which water is being piped to supply future residents. The left-hand branch of the dummy line runs west and a little south until it reaches the townsite of Melrose, recently laid out just west of the city limits. The location is a very nice level tract, sloping gently to the south, and the water pipes are laid all through it at short distances apart. Main street lies between Melrose and what is known as the Lick tract, on the west, and runs back to the foothills, near which a pretty church has been built. The dummy line follows up this street to Prospect avenue, where it turns to the west again. Just at this point is located Prospect Hill, so called from the fine view which is obtained from its summit. It is a slight elevation, as if designed for a building site, and upon it there is to be a fine hotel constructed in the immediate future, so the reporter was informed. The present location of the road will be upon the west line of the Lick tract, after passing over Prospect avenue. The section of country over which this line passes is a very desirable one, and especially that part of it between the junction point. The land lies along close to the low mountains which divide Calhoun from San Fernando Valley. From nearly all parts of it, but particularly in the vicinity of the townsite of Melrose, an extensive view of the former valley is obtained in the direction of Santa Monica, and, on a clear day, ships upon the ocean are plainly seen. Looking in a southerly direction, one can see far off toward San Pedro and Wilmington. The elevation here is equal to or greater than that of the Belmont Hotel or the new Baptist College, both of which may be seen in the distance. The land has a gradual slope toward the west, and water is had at a depth of 60 to 125 feet by boring. The soil is a warm, sandy loam for quite a wide space along the base of the hills, though further down there is some clay. It makes fine melons and potatoes. The region is so free from frosts that bananas do well near at hand, in an old orchard. The land beyond the Melrose site has been divided and laid out in five and ten-acre tracts, and since the advent of the dummy line has become a fixed fact, prices have doubled, and even more, inside of the past two months. The road is all graded to Melrose, and the iron distributed along the track. The line is to be substantially built and equipped by July 1st, next, and a 5-cent fare guaranteed to the center of the city from any point on the route. Some new buildings have already been erected in the vicinity of Prospect Hill, and the shrubbery and flowers in front of one, in particular, shows how much can be done towards making beautiful homes here in a very short space of time. Other parties who have lands in that locality are intending to put up residences there as soon as the road is completed, and without doubt these hills will see some very pretty homes established beneath their sheltering sides before many months shall pass away.

FIRST DAY.

A Rather Slim Attendance at the Turf Club Races.

A fair attendance, with a sprinkling of ladies, was at the opening of the second annual meeting of the Los Angeles Turf Club, yesterday afternoon, at Agricultural Park.

Gambling, save the wheel of fortune, was entirely suppressed, thanks to the officers of the law present, and the sports confined themselves to heavy betting at the pools. In the trotting race What Ho won three heats, losing only to Apprentice Boy. What Ho is a trotter of fine action and great speed, and would have won the three straight heats had his driver been able to have kept him on his feet. McGinnis, the favorite, won the three-quarter mile dash, in good style. The track was in fine condition. The following is an epitome of the races:

First race, trotting, 2:35 class; purse, $250.

John Wilson's b. g. Apprentice Boy, aged 3; B. F. Wood's b. g. Dick Turpin, 5; A. Sprout's b. g. Captain Jack, aged 3; C. A. Durfee's g. g. What Ho, 5.

The first heat was won by What Ho, Apprentice Boy second, Time, 2:35. Second heat—Apprentice Boy first, What Ho second, Time, 2:38. Third heat—What Ho first, Apprentice Boy second, Time, 2:34. Fourth and last heat—What Ho first, Captain Jack second, Time, 2:35.

Second race, running, Nadeau House stakes, three-fourths mile dash, for 2-year-olds—Machado's s. f. by Monitor, R. E. Stewart's s. f. Bonnie Blue, Capt. Hutchinson's b. c. Gen. Gordon, W. A. Paddock's b. c. Origin, H. L. Samuel's b. c. Ed McGinnis, Ed McGinnis, the favorite, won easily by two lengths.

There will be three races to-day, commencing at 2 p.m.

New Lumber Company.

The Southern California Lumber Company was recently incorporated, with the following officers: J. A. Henderson, president; J. R. Smurr, vice-president and treasurer, and William F. Marshall, secretary, and has purchased the entire business of the Davies-Henderson Lumber Company, 180 East First street, this city. They will carry an assorted stock of lumber and building material, and furnish all kinds of mill-work on short notice, at reasonable prices.

Police Commissioners.

The Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon and listened to a lot of petitions from saloon men who are anxious to secure licenses. They were referred to the Chief of Police with power to act. A petition from the Board of Trade was received and read. It was moved and seconded that the City

At the present time in San Francisco, the sidewalks in such numbers as will prevent the free and uninterrupted passage of pedestrians. The motion was unanimously adopted, and the board adjourned.

Lordsburg.

By reference to the advertising columns it will be seen that the time for the great Lordsburg land sale has been fixed for May 25th next, when an excursion with all accommodations will be run to this lovely spot, to convey all those who have been waiting for an opportunity to locate and invest in some of the desirable property to be offered for sale on this occasion.

No Arrests.

The little orange-peddler who holds forth in front of the St. Elmo had some words with a hackman last evening at 7 o'clock, and before the bystanders could interfere they were pounding each other with their fists as fast as they could. The hackman was too much for him, and the little fellow was cleaned out. There were no arrests made.

The Colony Town Named.

"Clearwater" is the name given to the town now being laid out by the Cooperative Colony on the Cerritos ranch. As a conspicuous feature of the place is plenty of clear, excellent water, the name seems very appropriate. At present there is no other Clearwater in the California postoffice list.

Main Street.

There will be held on Friday evening next, at 8 o'clock, in the hall of the Morris Vineyard Hose Company, corner California and Hill streets, a mass meeting of all persons interested in the improvement of Main street, between Washington and Jefferson. Property-owners on and contiguous to the street are especially urged to be present.

Dairymaids' Festival.

The young ladies who are to take part in the Dairymaids' Festival are rehearsing daily at the First Congregational Church. They are taking a great deal of pains in their work, and the managers feel confident that the performance will be a success.

Sparkling Dry.

A meeting of the stockholders of the "Dry Sparkling" Company was held yesterday, a new board of directors elected, and Dr. Gustavus Hamilton Trappus Griffin smilingly informed a TIMES reporter that "all was flourishing."

W. R. C.

Members of Frank Bartlett Relief Corps are requested to be present at their regular meeting, at 2:30 p.m., May 19th. Arrangements for Decoration Day will be made.

St. James.

St. James.

The development of Southern California seems to follow in the wake of the "Santa Fe Trail," as the "People's Line" is known in the East.

The magnificent foothill country has been opened, towns created and fortunes made by the investors in town property.

Now comes the first new town in the beautiful valley of the Santa Ana,

ST. JAMES.

It is located just at the outlet of the Santa Ana canyon, near the foothills, commanding a beautiful view of the Pacific Ocean.

Anaheim, four and a half miles, Orange, five miles, Santa Ana, nine miles. It will naturally control the great business of the Santiago Valley, and there is no soil more fertile, no landscape more entertaining, no future more promising, than this first new town in the Santa Ana Valley. The finest water power in the county is close to the townsite. The mill grinds day and night, with a force of 120-horse power.

The water for the town of St. James is there now, not "to be developed," but actually there.

The townsite is clean, level and perfect.

The maps will be out in a day or two, and the day of sale, which will be by auction, to the highest bidder, without reserve, will be named soon. The sale will positively occur this month.

Remember, the first purchasers always make money in our new towns.

DARING ROBBERS.

They Go Through a Train in Texas.

One of the Passengers Shot—Fifty Men in Pursuit.

Editor O'Brien Mobbed by Orangemen in Toronto.

A Railway Camp in Minnesota Surrounded by Flames—Many Lives Probably Lost—Trouble in the Clan-na-Gael—Sensational Suit in New York.

By Telegram to The Times.

GALVESTON, May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] A special to the News from Austin, Tex., says: "Fifty mounted men are leaving here by train tonight for McNeill, ten miles from here, near which point a big robbery of a north-bound train is reported. One passenger is reported to have been shot in the arm. There seems to be no doubt of the robbery."

MUST FORK OVER.

Stetka Wardell Wins Her Suit Against Helen Dauvray's Husband. NEW YORK, May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Miss Eva Heaton, theatrically known as Stetka Wardell, was today given a verdict for $5400 in her suit in the Superior Court against Lenard F. Tracey, ex-husband of Helen Dauvray. Tracey made the acquaintance of Miss Heaton in the Wheatley Amateur Dramatic Association of Philadelphia, in 1877, and was soon engaged to her. She was well-to-do, and he borrowed money of her to the amount of $5000. He afterward broke the engagement, and went to Europe and married Miss Dauvray. He refused payment on his return to America, and hence the suit.

VICAR-GENERAL QUINN.

Funeral Services Over His Remains—Impressive Rites.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The funeral of Vicar-General Quinn took place this morning from St. Patrick's Cathedral. The building was filled to overflowing. The body lay in state on an elevated catafalque in the central aisle, and candles burned brightly about it. The usual masses were said during the morning. A squad of police outside the cathedral kept order. Nearly every priest was in attendance. The pillars of the cathedral were draped in black, as was also the organ gallery. Five hundred tickets of admission had been issued. Speculators sold admission tickets at the front door at 50 cents and $1 each. The services opened with the celebration of the office for the dead by the choral choir of fifty boys, led by Fr. Lammott. Mass followed. Archbishop Corrigan was the celebrant.

SURROUNDED BY FIRE.

Terrible Affair in a Railway Camp—Many Lives Lost.

DETROIT (Mich.), May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] A Tribune special from Marquette says: "At 9 o'clock tonight news was received from Camp No. 3, Summit division of the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railroad extension, that the camp was surrounded by fire. George Grolet, timber contractor, and eight men escaped through a mile of fire and smoke, leaving 30 Italians in camp fighting for their lives. Every available dish, including cooking utensils, is in use and the only water available is from a well and a small creek some distance away. An attempt was made to remove the sick men of the party, but it failed. When Grolet and his party were a short distance away they heard a great shouting and saw a big flame, and believe the camp was burning. If so, it is feared there will be great loss of life among the panic-stricken Italians."

THE CLAN-NA-GAEL.

A Prominent Officer Disappears with Some of the Funds.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The Tribune tomorrow will say: "A commotion was caused among members of the Clan-na-Gael in this city and Brooklyn by the report that one of the leading officers of that body had gone away with $4000 of the fund of the society. It was stated that he was a native of Kentucky, and recently went to Brooklyn from Louisville. The statement was made that he had not defrauded, but had gone on a secret mission to England with the funds in his possession, which had been collected for the purpose. The executive board has tried to keep the matter quiet. The missing man belonged to the faction which controlled the recent convention in Pittsburgh, when several of the camps of the society withdrew on the ground that they contributed their money, but never had any report showing what was done with it."

MOBBED.

Editor O'Brien Assailed by Orangemen at Toronto.

TORONTO, May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The mob now seems satiated. Treasurer Feeley, of the local branch of the League sent the following telegram to the leaders of the League in New York and Chicago:

"O'Brien was mobbed in the streets of Toronto by Orangemen. J. M. Wall, of the New York Tribune, was seriously wounded."

O'Brien said to an Associated Press reporter: "Lansdowne has now done his worst. His policemen absolutely surrendered to the mob, and had we not taken refuge in a bicycle shop, we would have been killed." O'Brien will speak in Ottawa tomorrow and in Kingston on Friday. O'Brien spent the day in visiting several Catholic institutions in this city. He declares tonight that he will certainly go to St. Catherine's, and that the more the Orangemen oppose him the longer he will stay in Canada.

TO GUARD O'BRIEN. BUFFALO (N. Y.), May 18.—It leaked out here tonight that for some days past there has been a movement on foot among Irishmen of this city to go to Toronto and defend O'Brien from violence. A party numbering about fifty men is said to have been present at yesterday's meeting in Queen's Park, and were prepared in case any personal violence had been offered to Mr. O'Brien to act as his bodyguard. The names of some of these invaders are known.

A Novel Yacht.

PITTSBURGH, May 18.—About the latter part of July a novel yacht will be launched in the Ohio River, which will, no doubt, be followed by many more. It is being built for S. S. Thompson. It will be 38 feet long, 6 feet beam, and will draw less than 20 inches. It will be run by gas. The gas will be generated from chemicals in a machine, which will occupy about eighteen inches space in the stern of the boat. The power will be four-horse, and the builders guarantee the boat to travel twelve miles an hour. The engine, machinery, etc., only weigh about 300 pounds, so that the vessel will carry twenty-five people.

Again on Trial.

PORTLAND, May 18.—August H. Prindle, formerly an insurance agent in this city, who was arrested in Napa, Cal., last August, on a charge of embezzlement, was again placed on trial in the Circuit Court today. The Grand Jury found four indictments. A few weeks ago Prindle was tried on the first and acquitted.

Death of a Philanthropist.

WICHITA (Kan.), May 18.—Hon. Timothy Coop, a wealthy and venerable English traveler and philanthropist, died here yesterday.

A Murderer Breaks Jail.

HONOLULU (Pa.), May 18.—James P. McCable, sentenced to be hanged May 26th, made his escape from jail this morning.

SEASON'S SPORTS.

Volante Wins Easily at Louisville, but Montana Regents Fail to Run—Doings on the Diamond Field.

By Telegram to The Times.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.), May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The attendance at the Louisville Jockey Club grounds today was fair, but the programme was a disappointment. The Merchants' stake, which promised to be the greatest event of the meeting, dwindled down to a walkover for Baldwin's Volante. Montana Regent, Phenomenal, Egmont and Wary were entered, but their owners were afraid of the Californian and only Volante and Miss Ford and Elgin started. Volante galloped in an easy winner, Miss Ford second, and Elgin a bad third. The track was somewhat heavy. The weather was bright and warm. Modesty and Volante were the only favorites who won. Autocrat, Violet and Lotfin (respectively 4, 6 and 3 to 1) were the dark ones who walked away with the money in the other events. Cheatham's starting was not up to his usual standard. The judges were Capt. Sam Brown, Col. Clark and Col. John Faulkner.

First race, five-eighths of a mile, for maidens 3-year-olds—Autocrat got the best start, and at the three-quarters was three lengths ahead. He was never reached, and finished first by three lengths in 1:04. White was second and Biggoet third.

Second race, three-quarters of a mile, for maidens 3-year-olds—Lottie Wall was left at the wheel, but started. Slipway was at the front at the three-quarters, but Violet won by half a length, Billy Lincoln second and Belle Law third. Time, 1:18.

Third race, seven-eighths of a mile, selling—Eliza Carter got off first to a bad start. Lotfin won by a neck in 1:23. Handy Andy second, Doctor third.

Fourth race, Merchants' stakes, one and one-eighths miles, $1000 added by the merchants of Louisville, of which $150 was second, $100 to third, and $50 to fourth. There were thirty-two entries and only three starters. Miss Ford was off first, Elgin second, and Thee third. These positions were maintained to the three-quarters. Turning into the stretch they were even, Lewis beginning to whip Elgin. Miss Ford held first to within ten lengths, when Volante came out of the stretch and won by a length. Miss Ford second, Elgin third, two lengths behind. Time, 1:55.

Fifth race, six furlongs, Club purse, all ages—La Belle led to the head of the stretch, where Modesty came forward. Modesty won, Wanderer second, Col. Owens third. Time, 1:16.

A SARCASM.

The San Francisco "Report's" Able Suggestion.

The San Francisco Report waxes facetious over the deadness of the city on the bay, and projects a "sarkam," in the words and figures following, to wit:

OUR BOOM. It is understood that boxes are to be placed on the railroad trains, at the ferry landings, in the hotels, on the cars, and in such other positions and places as may be thought best suited to their proper display before the eyes of eastern visitors. The boxes will be labeled about as follows:

Subscriptions for the Extension of Van Ness Avenue.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Contribution Box for Opening of Sixth and Twenty-fourth Avenues.

"He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."

Fund for Widening of Golden Gate Avenue.

"The Lord loveth a cheerful giver."

It is expected that by these means the Queen City of the Pacific will soon be enabled to undertake, if not this year, at least the year after next, some of the improvements which we all admit to be so necessary.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

A Plea Received from the United States.

For Mercy in the Case of the Condemned Nogales Miscreants.

Diaz Will Probably Remit the Death Penalty.

How the Sister Republic Treats Train-wreckers—Three Miscreants Shot for Putting a Rock on the Rails—Two Americans Arrested for Murder.

By Telegram to The Times.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Minister Manning has presented to President Diaz the request of the American Government for remission of the death sentence imposed on three Mexican officers condemned by court-martial to be shot for violation of American territory and jurisdiction at Nogales. As the American Government was the party injured, there exists no doubt that its interposition for clemency will save the lives of the prisoners. The action of Secretary Manning is highly appreciated here, and is regarded as an exhibition of generous sentiment toward Mexico. In government circles, and among leading politicians, Judge Manning's handling of the case is commended as having probably prevented serious complications. The Minister's conduct in the matter has been characterized by moderation and a desire to avoid exciting bad feeling. It is thought that President Diaz will, undoubtedly, be influenced by the representations of the American Minister, although it is known that he felt that a stern example should be made in the case of these officers.

CRIME IN MEXICO.

Three Train-wreckers Shot—Americans Arrested for Murder.

ST. LOUIS, May 18.—[By the Associated Press.] A special from the City of Mexico says: "A week ago a train on the Mexican National Railroad ran over and killed a Mexican named Patzeur. The friends of the dead man undertook to retaliate, and put a big rock on a curve. The engine of a passenger train struck it and an American engineer was injured and a Mexican fireman killed. The Jefe Politico sent a squad of Mexican gendarmes with instructions to bring in every person suspected of any implication whatever. Thirty-three arrests were made. An investigation resulted in three convictions and sentence was immediately passed. Shortly after sunrise yesterday morning the three were marched to the scene of the disaster, stood up before an adobe wall and shot by a file of soldiers. The corpses lay for some time where they fell as a warning against more train-wreckers, and were finally buried near the scene of the wreck."

"News comes from Mazatlan that two Americans assassinated Enrique Nassee, manager of the Hacienda Tomil. The Americans were placed under arrest and conducted under military escort to the city, where they are awaiting trial."

A Californian Wants His Fees.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The suit of Charles H. Phelps against the Cable Railroad Company, of California, is now on trial in the Supreme Court, special term. Phelps sues for $32,000 commission and fees on the sale of the company's patents and the company defends on the ground that but $157,000 of the $400,000, for which Phelps sold their patents, was actually paid.

To Enjoin Western Union.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Col. J. C. Ruff has applied for an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph Company to prevent the issue of bonds into which the guaranteed obligations of the company are to be funded, and asks to have an extra issue of $1,300,000 of new stock to take up the dividend of scrip, declared illegal.

Mme. Janaschek's Mishap.

NEWPORT (R. I.), May 18.—Madame Janaschek last night fell down a flight of stairs, injuring her so severely as to necessitate an abandonment of all her engagements for the rest of the season.

Gone Daft.

Officers Dillon and Leverich found a man on Aliso avenue this morning, about half-past 1 o'clock, whose head was all out of fix. He was in continual fear of some imaginary beings who were after him—in his mind. The officers had a hard time to get him in, but after putting the irons on him and getting him in a hack, they brought him to the station, where he gave the name of John Hallard, and was locked in a cell.

Sold Again.

An amateur journal, notorious for the unspeakable stupidity of its railroad blunders, comes out with a grave announcement that the Santa Fe people are going to put a railroad through the Santa Susanna Pass and on up the coast to San Francisco. The story is in every particular a canard. The Times is in a position to know all about the matter. No such steps have been taken whatever.

South Los Angeles.

"FAUST."

GOUNOD'S MASTERPIECE FINELY PRESENTED HERE

By the National Opera Company—Another Big and Brilliant Audience and Splendid Performance—The Opera.

The third evening of the National Opera Company's season here was a continuation of the brilliant successes of the first two. The audience was again vast, cultured and appreciative; and again the opera was superbly presented.

THE OPERA.

Critical Review of Its Presentation

The Pavilion was filled apparently to its utmost capacity last night to witness the superb rendition of Gounod's Faust by the National Opera Company. Precisely at ten minutes past 8 the orchestra, under the direction of Theodore Thomas, began the overture, and it was nearly 12:30 before the curtain descended on the apotheosis of "Marguerite," one of the most beautiful tableaux ever put on the stage.

Never before in this country has the opera been rendered with such attention to matters of detail, and such thorough completeness in scenery, costumes and appointments. To enumerate all the fine points of the production would require more space than can be utilized at this late hour.

Miss Juch made a most favorable impression as the unhappy heroine. She looked the character to perfection, and acted it throughout in a natural, unaffected style, which won the easy sympathies of all beholders. Her voice is clear, pure and true, and in the spinning-wheel song and the jewel song she was at her best. The magnificent cathedral interior was a triumph of scenic art and the most effective "set" of the piece. It is a scene rarely given, and like the rivers of the Walpurgis night, requires a large stage for its proper presentation.

The "Faust" of the evening was physically a very satisfactory type of the character, but his vocal ability was not sufficient to cope with the requirements of the part. He has a very sweet voice and the principal defect was that the orchestra was too much for him.

Ludwig was a fine "Mephisto." In action, gesture and voice, he portrayed the character, not in the hackneyed way, but with an originality that did him great credit. His song outside "Marguerite's" house, with the sardonic refrain of leonine laughter, was excellent.

Jessie Bartlett Davis was a very pleasing "Siebel," and the "Valentine" was more than ordinarily good. The soldiers' chorus was most striking in its effectiveness. The quaint, rich and varied costumes of the men, the rich armor and array of medieval weapons, their gallant bearing, and rich, strong voices, as they trooped forth the well-known chorus in the picturesque old Nuremberg street, was a treat to be long remembered.

The ballet, introducing the revels of the Walpurgis night, was the best thing of the kind the company has yet shown us, and was simply gorgeous in its array of feminine loveliness, and dazzling in its general scenic effect.

The scene at the fountain was omitted, possibly on account of the length of the performance; but taken altogether, the representation, aided as it was by the magnificent orchestra, under the personal direction of Theodore Thomas, was powerful enough to keep the vast audience in their seats till a very late hour, and even then they left regretfully.

Usually at these large undertakings there is some hitch of greater or less consequence, which, to a certain extent, spoils the illusion of the stage. This company seems, however, to have everything in such perfect order and under such complete control that the intricate working of the stage is managed without any of the ordinary accidents.

Today at the matinee the Merry Wives of Windsor, with Pauline L'Allemant in the cast. In the evening Verdi's Aida. Manager Locke announced from the stage that in deference to the numerous requests that had been made, and in view of the great success of the engagement thus far, he had decided to give our citizens an opportunity to hear the great opera of Nero, which is the grandest and most perfect of all in the company's repertory. It will be given on Saturday evening. The intervening night of tomorrow will be devoted to the one-act opera of the Marriage of Figaro and the grand ballet in three acts of Coppelia, which will give the people of Los Angeles an opportunity to see a genuine ballet in action.

Subscribers to seats for the National Opera can retain the same seats for the two nights of the extension, if they will call at the office and arrange for them at once.

Money is No Object.

The lives of your children are of priceless value. Every child is a subject to sudden attacks of bowel complaint during the summer months. It is always alarming and often fatal. The only rational plan is to be provided at all times with the safest and surest remedy, and promptly treat the disorder in its first stages, and before the vitality becomes exhausted. Unexpected delays so often occur in sending for a physician or medicine, especially during the day's heat or from a distance, that no one can afford to risk such uncertainties when life depends upon promptness. Keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand for instant use. It is made for bowel complaint only and is unquestionably the most reliable medicine ever brought into general use. The price is no object compared with its value in saving life. Sold by C. H. Hance, 77 and 79 North Spring street.

For fear of losing a day's work, many persons put off taking physic until Saturday. The better plan is to not delay, but take it as soon as needed; it may save you a hard spell of sickness. If you want the most benefit from the least amount of physic, without causing you any inconvenience, loss of appetite or rest, take St. Patrick's Pills. Their action on the liver and bowels are thorough. They give a freshness, tone and vigor to the whole system, and act in harmony with nature. Sold by C. H. Hance, 77 and 79 North Spring street.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

This has been demonstrated in thousands of cases treated by

DR. WILLIAMS.

With his new system of Medicated Inhalations combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Catarrh is often regarded by the patient as a cold in the head, and he often expresses his astonishment at his remarkable recovery after contract a fresh cold; indeed, he declares that he is scarcely free from one cold before he takes another, and yet he is always exceedingly careful; it is also a matter of surprise to him that the cold always seems to settle in the head and throat.

At times many of the symptoms of Catarrh may seem to abate, and the patient is led to hope that the disease is about to wear off; but another class of symptoms soon appears, and he learns to his horror that instead of recovery from the disease, it is somewhat changed in its character and has extended to the throat. A sense of weariness is sometimes felt in the morning, speaking or singing, hoarseness, times occurs, a sensation of dryness is felt in the throat, or it appears that some foreign substance, as, for instance, a hair, obstructed the throat; there becomes a sense of languor and fatigue, the breath lessens upon a little exertion, a short, hacking cough, a peculiar sound in clearing the throat, a feeling as though there was not room enough in the chest to breathe; these and other symptoms occur after the disease has made considerable progress. Then it is a time when consumption is about to begin its dreadful work. Up to this time the progress of the disease may have been slow, and the patient may, in expressing his confident hope that it will "wear off," declare that he has had the catarrh for years, and has not seemed to become much worse, and trusts that he will "by-and-by" recover. But this delusion is the grand error which has peopled our cemeteries with consumptive forms, as all forms of catarrh end finally in consumption.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severally require.

By the employment of proper inhalation in the form of medicated vapor (not steam or spray) we are able to produce immediate and direct action upon the diseased surface in the pharynx and nasal passages, for air will find its way to the most remote and intricate cavities, where it is utterly impossible to make fluid applications. By these means every case can be cured.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.

Those who desire to come with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination, but if impossible to do so can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address,

The Chant of the Cross-bearing Child.

I bear dis cross dis many a mile,
O de cross-bearin' chile—
De cross-bearin' chile!

I bear dis cross 'long many a road
Win' de pink an' bloomed an' de grass an' 't growed.
O de cross-bearin' chile—
De cross-bearin' chile!

Hits on my conscience all dese days
Fo' ter bear dis cross ut de good Lord lays
On 'ter po' soul, an' 'ter lif' my praise.
O de cross-bearin' chile—
De cross-bearin' chile!

Yit de mostah call, an' He say—"You's free
Fo' ter 'cept dis cross, an' 'ter cringe yo' knees
O de cross-bearin' chile—
De cross-bearin' chile!

Says you guess wrong if I let you guess—
Says you 'spect more an' 'a you git less;
Says you go eas', says you go wes',
An' whense you fine de road ut you like bes?
You better take chlee er any er de res!
O de cross-bearin' chile—
De cross-bearin' chile!

He build my feet, an' he fix de signs
Dat de shoe hit pinch, an' de shoe hit bines
Ef I wear eights an' a wanner wear nines,
An' I hone 'fo' de rain, an' 'fo' de sun it shines,
An' whilse I hunt de sun hits dains I fines,
O-a trim my lamp, an' 'a gyrd my lines!
O de cross-bearin' chile—
De cross-bearin' chile!

I wade de wet, an' I walk de dry;
I done tromp long, an' I done clim' high;
An' I pilgrim on ter de golding sky,
An' I taken de reek 'fo' ter cas' my eye
Wha' de gate swing wide, and de Lord draw nigh,
An' de trump hit blow, an' I hear de cry:
"You lay dat cross down an' by!"
O de cross-bearin' chile—
De cross-bearin' chile!"

RAILROAD OFFICIALS' VISIT—A CELEBRATION.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, May 16.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] A special train arrived here Friday night, bearing Superintendent Fillmore, Assistant Superintendent J. A. Muir, Auditor E. F. Gerald and other gentlemen. Saturday morning the party inspected the new bridge, which is almost built across the Ventura River at this place, and the depot grounds, and departed for Saticoy to locate the depot grounds at that new town.

A large attendance was present at the public meeting in the Free Library rooms last Wednesday. It was decided to hold a Floral Festival on May 25th, 26th, and 27th in the Union Hall, the proceeds to be devoted to the renting and furnishing of a hall for the Blue Ribbon Club.

A full list of committees were appointed, to begin preparations at once. The Ventura Development Association has decided to arrange an excursion to run here from Los Angeles during the Floral Festival.

We are notified that mails and passengers will come here by regular trains on Wednesday, May 18th.

A special exhibition of the rich specimens received from the Lexington (Ventura county) mines will be given tonight at the meeting of the Society of Natural History.

The Ventura Free Press issues today an eight-page edition of 10,000 copies to celebrate the arrival of passenger trains.

H. S. de Rochemont, of San Francisco, is here on a search for colony tracts.

CRUSADE AGAINST PROSTITUTES AND BLACKLEGS.

SAN BERNARDINO, May 17.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The city authorities have started a movement against the disreputable women and the gamblers, which has resulted in several of the fallen women and blacklegs leaving town hurriedly. Five women arrested last Friday were given $500 or six months in jail, and the majority will spend their Fourth of July behind the bars.

The escape of Connors and his pal from the County Jail late Sunday night was the subject of much comment, but as yet it is not known exactly how it happened.

Considerable talk is indulged in about the Southern Pacific Railroad coming into San Bernardino, and it is said they have selected Seventh and E streets for a depot site. However, the rumor has not yet been officially confirmed.

The Athletic Club is now contemplating the erection of a $2000 building to use as a gymnasium, as they have to vacate the present quarters in favor of the Salvation Army the first of next month.

The Salvation Army still holds forth at Fourth and D streets every night, but the audience is growing smaller all the while.

The advent of the new road from here to Los Angeles gives great satisfaction, in that people have now four trains from here to Los Angeles, two over the new and two over the old road.

Large numbers still enjoy the Sunday rest by riding, and the lively stables have their hands full every Sunday, supplying the demand.

The dust in San Bernardino has been terrible for some time past, and it is hoped the Council will soon put watering carts at work and abate this nuisance.

A fine new brick building is being erected for store purposes at Third and F streets. The new building on Third, just above E street, will be ready for occupancy next week.

The neat new uniforms of the city police attract universal commendation. They are a compliment to the force.

Written for THE TIMES.

"Dared I but say a prophecy,
As sung the holy men of old,
Of rock-built cities yet to be
Along these shining shores of gold,
Crowding about the sea,
What wondrous marvels might be told."

The writer has had the gift of prescience if not of prophecy, and in the exercise of that gift has foretold the very improvements now taking place in and about Los Angeles. But in order to have the full benefits of the glorious heritage that has been vouchsafed to us, there must be some cooperative work by the people themselves in the matter of wholesome sanitation. It will not do in this day and age to leave the matter entirely in the hands of the physicians. In fact, it is imperative that we make the science of hygiene a public educational trust! How else are we to realize the magnificent possibilities of our climate and surroundings? Nature has been lavish in her gifts on this coast; it is the place of art to so improve them that future generations may rise up to call us blessed. There is demanded of us today the same self-restraint and severe asceticism that inspired the Greek models of physical and mental perfection. No school is now organized that teaches this. Hygiene and industrial education, in its power to symmetrically develop the human race, is only in its A. B. C. stage. There is no reasonable doubt that men will be able to fly, when they sufficiently master the science of life to take advantage of all its possibilities. When the science of electrical repulsion or negative gravity is sufficiently familiar there is no more difficulty or danger in aerial navigation than in the sailing of the seas. But man must be subjected to the severest mental and physical training to develop this power. The condition of the Cordilleras is as heavy as some adult persons, yet they sustain themselves in the light air of extreme altitudes without an apparent effort. It is owing to their power to store up negative electricity.

Cheap Lodging Houses for Men.

[New York Letter in the Providence Journal.] In place of rooms to let they advertise beds. "Two hundred clean spring beds," you read, and the prices vary from 35 cents a night to 10 cents a night, with wholesale terms by the week ranging from $1.50 to 50 cents. When the elevated passenger sees one that presents the lodgings to the public view he does not wonder that the proprietors are backward about advertising rooms, for he sees the place partitioned off, usually with raw pine, into six-foot spaces, with 3 1/2-foot hallways between them, the bigger divisions having wooden cots in them with only a foot or two of space at the side where the door is. There never is any carpet or matting, or padding to aristocratic or luxurious notions—not even to the furnishing of a bureau or a bowl and pitcher. One of these cubbyholes in one lodging-house is seen to be almost papered with pictures cut from illustrated papers and chromos given away by storekeepers. It is fair to presume that this is the abode of a regular lodger of domestic instincts, who regards his connection with the room as a permanent relationship.

FASHIONS FOR MEN.

The Newest Things in Shirts, Collars, Neckties and the Like. (Haberdrasher.)

French shirts in line and percale are less startling than last season, and the tendency is toward quiet and genteel effects. This does not apply to figures, which are more strongly colored than ever.

Shirts, embroidered in delicate colors, will be leaders with high-class trade this summer, and will probably be the proper thing for full dress this fall. The neatest of these have a tiny strip of embroidery down the flap in dark-blue and pale yellow. Cuffs are similarly embroidered. In white embroidered shirts, recent importations show numerous very tasteful new patterns, both in stripes and all over. Some of the latter have stars alternated with small spots, widely spaced. Both pique and linen bosoms are shown.

White or embroidered pique shirts have a small channelled rib instead of the plain round rib of previous seasons. Preference is given to vertical rather than to horizontal ribs.

Colored pique shirts show "boa constrictor" effects, produced by alternate lines of contrasting colors of a zig-zag weave. The colors are solid, or with a gray mixture, blue and yellow, blue and pink, blue and white, pink and white, and other combinations. The extreme effects have a combination of three or four colors, in bars, stripes and polka spots.

Fancy drabs and marseilles vests in blues, drabs, buffs, etc., will be very much worn this summer. They are cut quite low to show considerably of the embroidered shirt front.

Swell dressers among the New York clubmen are already wearing a straight tie one and one-quarter inches wide at the ends, which are square and fringed. These are either made-up bows, fastening with a buckle at the back, or are tied by the wearer. Leading furnishers are recommending them.

The four-in-hand is dropping delicately to a modest size. Wide ties are entirely passé, and two inches is the popular size. Even narrower widths will be shown soon.

Very high collars are no longer in good form; two and one-eighth inches is the extreme height, and some popular shapes are as low as one and three-quarter inches in front. In straight seam collars the corners are sharp, with an opening straight, or almost straight, and from one-quarter to three-quarter inches in width.

Link buttons are very small and delicate this season, and large or odd patterns are not recommended. Slightly ornamented gold tints for the street and plain white enamel for dress are most in vogue.

For men's outing dress, Knickerbocker trousers are rapidly growing in favor, and long stockings of tasteful designs are, this season, a more important part of manufacturers' stocks than hitherto.

A made-up Windsor bow is one of the season's novelties in neckwear. It saves the trouble of tying, which prevents many people from wearing Windsor ties.

Washable pique suspenders for summer wear are shown this season in uncommon variety.

TAKEN FROM "LIFE."

Never look a gift mule in the heels. Time is a great healer, but not much of a politician.

No, John, a lady bug is not so called because of her quiet, modest ways, but because of the chromatic gorgeousness of her bonnet.

The reason why so many of our young men are fine base-ball players is that many of them have been brought up on base hits.

Harper's Bazar is instructing the young to lead on how to live on $500 a year. The average youth of today lives about a week on $500 a year.

Patti-Nicolini: Our regular subscription price to artists of your standing is $75 per annum. We come high, madam, but, as the poet said, "We must be had."

A Chicago missionary nearly converted an Anarchist last Sunday, but he inadvertently hummed the hymn, "Go to that clear, flowing fow-hountain, where you may wash and be clean," and the Anarchist returned to his evil ways.

A Russian nobleman died recently whose name was too long to be sent by cable, but it was gravely asserted that he could shell an ear of corn with it and have enough left over for a barbed-wire fence, a nail-claw and springs for a mattress.

NEW DEFINITIONS.

Consistency: A jewel which frequently needs resetting.

Duty: An obligation that rests entirely upon one's neighbor.

Music: A polite art which serves its highest usefulness as a stimulus to conversation.

Advice: A superfluous article which everybody is eager to give away, but no one cares to receive.

Poetry: Any metrical composition whose merit is unrecognized by the average magazine editor.

Culture: The pursuit of social folly having its origin in the love of singularity.

Civility: An ancient form of behavior, popular in feudal times, but unsuited to the exigencies of modern civilization.

Artist: A man of subtle aesthetic perceptions who attains proficiency in some such useful art as hair-dressing or negro minstrelsy.

News: Old women's gossip; salacious scandal, and secrets of domestic and conjugal life; anything in the way of rumor that does not relate to public affairs.

Economy: A habit of life which enables a woman to save money in her domestic expenditures in order that her husband may keep up his end at the club.
